(2) Customer also understands that the data entries residing in Sensaphone's product can be changed by the Customer. Customer further understands and agrees that he/she/it is to bear the risk of loss or damage that may result from changes to the Sensaphone product programming made by, or on behalf of the Customer, and that such changes may prevent or impair the ability of the Sensaphone's monitoring and notification system from providing timely and successful notifications of detected events to Customers designated destinations.
